

PPAG

Lorna D. O'Hara, CAE

Lorna D. O'Hara, CAE has more than fifteen years of experience in political development and government affairs within various organizations in and around Washington, DC. Since joining

PPAG– Princeton Public

Affairs Group, Ms. O'Hara has focused, both the state and national level, on association management, grass tops and grassroots field campaigns, marketing, communications, public relations and political action committee development.

A Certified Association Executive, Ms. O'Hara presently serves as the Executive Director of the Balloon Council, a national association of balloon manufacturers, distributors and retailers. Ms. O'Hara has also served on The Kennedy Center's Camelot Circle Board, Project Children's Stout Hearts and the Blarney Ball Committee.

Prior to joining the Princeton Public Affairs Group in 2005, Ms. O'Hara was employed as the Director of Political Development for The American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC). Previous to ACEC, she was in charge of Political Outreach for Capital One Financial Corporation, where she developed the Corporations' Capitol Contact Network and achieved thirty to forty percent increases in Political Action Committee totals during each election cycle.

Ms. O'Hara began her career in government affairs at The National Restaurant Association. She managed the NRA's Political Action Committee and their annual Public Affairs Conference. Ms. O'Hara played a key role in achieving the Associations' goal of raising $1 million through its Political Action Committee.

In 2006, Ms. O'Hara served on the Borough of Monmouth's Centennial Committee. In 2007 the Mayor of Monmouth Beach appointed Ms. O'Hara to represent the borough on the Monmouth County Regional Health Commission. She is also a member of the Monmouth County Regional Women's Political Caucus and was appointed Treasurer in 2007. In 2008 Mayor Howard appointed Ms. O'Hara to serve on the Monmouth Beach Planning and Zoning Board.

An alumna of Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, Ms. O'Hara holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in East Asian Studies. Upon graduating from the university, she studied at the University of International Business and Economics in Beijing. In her free time Ms. O'Hara enjoys golfing, the shore, CKO kick-boxing, reading Irish history, and college football.